

“Sweet Home Nile River”

by

Wyatt Luebke, Jamari Gamble, Kylee Milliken, and Lexi Brown

Sung to the tune of “Sweet Home Alabama”

Big deltas keep on formin!
Sheltering Egypt from other men
Singing songs about the Nile
I miss the river once again
And I believe it's a sin yeah!

Well I heard Osirus sing about her
Well I heard Ole Atum put her down
Well I hope they both will remember
An Egyptian man don't need'em round anyhow

Sweet home Nile River
Where the white meets the blue
Sweet home Nile River
Hoppi's watchin out for you

In Egypt's land they love the Pharaoh
Ooh Ooh Ooh
And they all did what they could do
The Nile's flooding does not bother me
It turns the farming into food
Good ole food

Sweet home Nile River
Where the white meets the blue
Sweet home Nile River
Hoppi's watchin out for you

With the cataracts and the delta
And the deserts on the sides
They kept ole Egypt from being overthrown
They kept it around for a hundred years or two

Sweet home Nile River
Where the white meets the blue
Sweet home Nile River
Hoppi's watchin out for you
